This act enables students in transition to enroll and attend school no matter where they live or how long they have lived there.

- E.R.A.T. - Emergency Response and Assessment Team

ERAT provides intensive in-home services and coordinates on-going services for families in need by linking them to any services needed to help avoid unnecessarily removing children from their home in order to preserve families. The goal of ERAT is to ensure children's safety and well-being within the home and preserve intact families in which children have been maltreated, whenever the family's problems can be addressed effectively in the community.

- Youth Prevention Services

Free individual school-based counseling services through our Youth Prevention Services Program (serving ages 10 through 17). Upon completion of the assessment, an individualized service plan will be developed to address the identified issues. Skills and strategies will be implemented through counseling to help improve and change the situation. Youth and their families may be referred to other community providers as deemed appropriate.

For additional information or to determine if your child qualifies for counseling services through the Youth Prevention Services Program, email YPS@sccfl.org.

Fema Funeral Costs

FEMA to Help Pay Funeral Costs for COVID-19-related Deaths Applications begin April 12, 2021.

In early April, FEMA will begin providing financial assistance for funeral expenses incurred after Jan. 20, 2020, for deaths related to coronavirus (COVID-19) to help ease some of the financial stress and burden caused by the pandemic. The policy was finalized today, and FEMA is now moving rapidly to implement this funeral assistance program nationwide.

To be eligible for COVID-19 funeral assistance, the policy states:

- The applicant must be a U.S. citizen, non-citizen national, or qualified alien who incurred funeral expenses after Jan. 20, 2020, for a death attributed to COVID-19.
- If multiple individuals contributed toward funeral expenses, they should apply under a single application as applicant and co-applicant. FEMA will also consider documentation from other individuals not listed as the applicant and co-applicant who may have incurred funeral expenses as part of the registration for the deceased individual.
- An applicant may apply for multiple deceased individuals.
- The COVID-19-related death must have occurred in the United States, including the U.S. territories and the District of Columbia.
- This assistance is limited to a maximum financial amount of $9,000 per funeral and a maximum of $35,500 per application.
- Funeral assistance is intended to assist with expenses for funeral services and interment or cremation.

On The Spot Aid, Inc

On The Spot Aid, Inc is a street medicine outreach, providing assessments, treatments, education, and provision of basic first aid supplies in public places where the homeless can be found. Serving Punta Gorda, Port Charlotte, Englewood and North Port Florida. Respite Care to open in summer of 2023, bridging the gap between hospitals and homelessness.

There is a gap in the system for homeless persons who are too sick to be on the streets but aren't critically ill enough to warrant inpatient hospitalization. "Medical respite care is acute and post-acute care for persons experiencing homelessness who are too ill or frail to recover from a physical illness or injury on the streets but are not ill enough to be in a hospital. Unlike "respite" for caregivers, "medical respite" is a short-term residential care that allows individuals experiencing homelessness the opportunity to rest in a safe environment while accessing medical care and other supportive services." (National Healthcare for the Homeless Council)

According to Florida State Statutes, hospitals are not permitted to discharge patients to 'homeless'. We believe that our area hospitals are doing their best to adhere to this law, but the challenge remains clear. To date, we have coordinated with hospitals and other agencies to provide clients hotel rooms for needed recovery time. This is a better alternative to sleeping outdoors, but not a practical long-term solution - financially or logistically.

Medicare Prescription Savings

You may find it necessary to get help paying for prescriptions even after enrolling in Medicare drug coverage (Part D). For example, you may reach the annual spending limit and enter what is called the coverage gap. Here are 6 tips to consider if you think you might need to get help with the costs of prescription drug coverage.

1. Consider switching to generics or other lower-cost drugs.

There may be generic or less-expensive brand-name drugs that would work just as well as the ones you're taking now. Talk to your doctor to find out if these are an option for you. You might also be able to lower prescription costs by using mail-order pharmacies.

2. Choose a Medicare drug plan that offers additional coverage during the gap.

There are plans that offer additional coverage during the Medicare drug coverage gap, like for generic drugs. However, plans with additional gap coverage to help pay for prescriptions may charge a higher monthly premium.

Check with the drug plan first to see if your drugs would be covered during the gap. Find health & drug plans.

3. Pharmaceutical Assistance Programs.

Some pharmaceutical companies offer programs to help pay for medications for people enrolled in Medicare drug coverage (Part D). Find out whether there's a Pharmaceutical Assistance Program that can lower prescription costs for the drugs you take.

4. State Pharmaceutical Assistance Programs.

Many states and the U.S. Virgin Islands offer help paying for prescriptions, drug plan premiums and/or other drug costs. Find out if your state has a State Pharmaceutical Assistance Program.

5. Apply for Extra Help.

Medicare and Social Security have a program called Extra Help—a way for people with limited income and resources to get help with prescription costs.

6. Explore national and community-based charitable programs like these that help pay for medications:

- National Organization for Rare Disorders

Formal case management is provided when needed.

Administration:

The Department is responsible for planning, monitoring, training, and technical assistance for the program. Unit rate contracts are established by Area Agencies on Aging for local administration of the program within each Planning and Service Area. Services include more than 150,000 subsidy checks issued annually.

Eligibility:

Individuals must be age 60 or older, have income less than the Institutional Care Program (ICP) standard, meet the ICP asset limitation, be at risk of nursing home placement, and have an approved adult caregiver living with them who is willing and able to provide care or help arrange for care.

Eviction

SHIELD

Supportive Housing Initiative, Eviction Lifeline & Diversion, or SHIELD.

Once in contact with tenants, Robin Stover can access multiple sources of assistance.

If tenants appear to have a legal angle to pursue against landlords, attorney Robin Stover is also the deputy director of housing for Gulfcoast Legal..

If it's a matter of catching a tenant up on back payments to resolve the dispute and halt the eviction, Stover can turn to the agency's designated funds, or other programs like Season of Sharing.

If all else fails, SHIELD can direct people to emergency shelters or partner organizations like Family Promise of South Sarasota County. The agency also has access to mental health counselors in the building and can refer residents to CareerSource for job help.

Selah Freedom

The Residential Program is a holistic approach to restoration. Survivors, who have had everything stolen from them, get the stability and rest they need to dream again! They can accomplish goals they never knew were possible to tackle - things like getting their GED, driver's license, and learning to swim!

Selah Freedom provides a three-phase Residential Program to survivors of sex trafficking and exploitation, with two safe houses in the Southwest Florida area. First, survivors enter the Rest Phase, which allows them to reflect and decide if they are prepared to move forward with stepping into the new life Selah Freedom offers.

The second phase is the Restore Phase, where women receive a personalized education plan, medical aid, trauma therapy, job placement, case management, and restorative services. They also have the opportunity to build healthy and safe relationships that will follow them into their final stage of the program.

The final stage is the Relaunch Phase, in which survivors receive individualized planning and assistance with living independently, career goals, and continued support.

Legal Services

(GLS) is the only legal aid program that provides free legal assistance in immigration cases for eligible low-income individuals residing in Hillsborough, Pinellas, Manatee, and Sarasota Counties. GLS may handle the following types of cases for eligible immigrants:

Domestic-violence related cases: An abused spouse or child of a legal permanent resident or a United States citizen may be able to self-petition for legal status in the United States under the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) without his or her abuser's assistance.

Removal of Conditional Residence: A conditional lawful permanent resident whose spouse is abusive and will not cooperate in removing the conditional status may be able to ask for a waiver of their cooperation.

U Visas: An immigrant who has suffered substantial abuse as the result of having been a victim of certain criminal activity and has been helpful in the investigation or prosecution of that crime may be eligible for a U visa. U visa status allows victims of domestic violence who cannot self-petition under VAWA because they are not married to their abuser, or their abuser is not a legal permanent resident or United States citizen, to obtain legal status.

T Visas: Victims of trafficking in persons may be able to petition for a form of legal status in the United States called a T visa.
